COVID-19 UPDATED NOTICE

At Facchini & Facchini, P.C., it remains our duty to serve our clients. We will continue to serve our clients and haven taken measures to ensure the health and safety of our clients and employees.

Today, March 23, 2020, Governor Baker shut down non-essential operations to prevent the corona outbreak from growing. Governor Baker announced the order would take effect at noon on Tuesday, March 24th and last until noon on April 7th. The order closes all non-essential business to workers and the public. This includes professional services such as law firms. The only exception is for emergency matters.

Although our physical office is temporarily closed, we have the resources to continue to work on your matter and will do our best to limit any potential delays or continuances. If your matter is in litigation, we will continue to advise you regarding the status of your matter, as the Administrative Office of the Trial Court has been implementing various protective measures that may limit or postpone court appearances.

Our virtual office will remain open and ready to serve you. We are more than happy to offer alternatives to in person meetings. While this may not be available in all matters, do not hesitate to contact the office to see if your meeting can be conducted by phone, video conference, etc.

FOR IMMEDIATE SERVICE, PLEASE DO NOT HESITATE TO CALL AT ANY TIME
